

Greens Candidate to tour Sothern Downs electorate

16th January 2015

Greens candidate Elizabeth Ure plans to meet as many voters as she can in the short time left before the election.

Ms Ure will be accompanied by her team of volunteers and for parts of the tour, senior Green Andrew Bartlett.

They are pleased to be given the opportunity to meet voters, listen to any issues that they have as well as to give them an outline of The Greens' key policy initiatives.

Towns visited include Stanthorpe, Texas, Goondiwindi, Inglewood, Allora, Millmerran and Cecil Plains.

Dates and times are located on the campaign website GreensForSouthernDowns.com.au.

The Greens candidate is also available in the campaign office in Warwick at 94 Grafton Street (next to Cuttin' Candy). The office is opened and staffed from 10am to 4pm week days.
